To look up your final exam date and time, follow these instructions:

1. Determine the starting time and day(s) your class meets (MWF = Monday, Wednesday, and/or Friday and TR = Tuesday and/or Thursday).
2. Look in the table to find the combination that contains both the day(s) and starting times of your class.
3. The shaded area at the top of the table shows the date of your final exam. The shaded area at the left of the table shows the time of your final exam.

For example, if you have a class which meets on MWF with a starting time of 9:45 am, your final exam will be on a Wednesday from 8:40 - 10:40 am. If you have a class which meets only on Thursdays at 1:15 pm, your final exam will be on a Tuesday from 1:00 - 3:00 pm.

Final Exam Policy

Our State mandated instructional schedule includes the final exam period. In order to be in compliance with New York State Education Department requirements, we must adhere to the final exam schedule.

College policy requires that you select one of the alternatives listed below as an activity to be conducted for each of your courses during the final exam period.

1. A comprehensive exam to be given at the time designated in the final exam schedule.
2. A unit exam, covering the last unit or module of the course, to be given at the time designated in the final exam schedule.
3. A term project or take home exam delivered to the instructor at some time during the designated final exam period.
4. An evaluation of projects, papers, or performances completed during the term, the evaluations to be scheduled during the designated final exam period at a time convenient to both the student and instructor.
